THE

South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY October 2d, to MONDAY October 9th, 1749.

LONDON, June 15.

LAST Tueſday the Lords of the Admiralty gave Orders for the ſpeedy victualling a Number of Tranſports, to carry ſome foreign Proteſtants to Nova-Scotia.

June 23. Yeſterday his Majeſty held a Chapter of the moſt noble Order of the Garter, when the ſix vacant Garters were preſented, to Prince George, eldeſt Son of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, the Margrave of Anſpach-Brandenburgh, the Dukes of Bedford and Leeds, and the Earls of Granville and Albemarle.

London, June 26. Several private Letters from Holland intimate, that they were very much ſurprized, on their receiving an Account from England, that a Bill was brought into Parliament in Favour of a White Herring and Cod Fiſhery; and that ſeveral Meetings had been held by ſome of their ableſt Stateſmen, in Conjunction with ſome of their greateſt Merchants, in order to concert the moſt effectual Meaſures for ſecuring the Intereſts of the Dutch Fiſhery.

June 27. Yeſterday Sir John Mordaunt, Sir John Saville, Sir Charles Armand Poulet, Sir Charles Howard, Sir Peter Warren, and Sir Edward Hawke, were inſtalled Knights of the Bath.

On Friday the Baltimore Man of War, Capt. Walker, having on board ſeveral Gentlemen appointed to fix on proper Places for eſtabliſhing a Fiſhery on the Coaſt of Scotland, fell down the River, and is bound to Burrowſtouneſs and the Iſles of Orkney and Zetland, for that Purpoſe.

Landguard Fort is refitting, and greatly enlarging; and a Barrack is building for the Uſe of the Soldiery, whoſe Number is to conſiderably augmented there.

His Grace the Duke of Richmond.

Doctors of Laws.

Earl of Dalkeith, Earl of Lincoln, Earl of Tankerville, Earl Waldegrave, Earl of Aſhburnham, Lord Viſcount Galway, Lord Burghley, Lord Onſlow, Lord Monſon, Right Hon Sir William Young, Hon. Philip York, Eſq; Sir George Saville, Bart. Sir John Saville, Knight of the Bath, and Sir William Calvert, Knt. Lord Mayor of London.

We are aſſured, from very good Authority, that eight Men of War are order'd to be got ready for ſailing, which are deſigned as a Fleet of Obſervation upon the Buildings carrying on in the French Ports.

Some Ships having been built in this River, bought up here, and conſigned to France; Repreſentations have been made to his Majeſty on this Subject, who has been pleaſed to give neceſſary Orders for preventing thereof for the future.

The Diſpatch Sloop of War is gone to Dunkirk and Oſtend with Diſpatches for the Government, having alſo two Engineers on board.

We hear that the Buildings at the Horſe Guards are ordered to be pull'd down, to be built up again in an elegant Manner; and that the War Office, Trade and Plantation Office, the Office for Chelſea Hoſpital, &c. will be in the new Building, and that Huts for the Horſe-Guards will be built near Buckingham Gate, 'till the ſame is finiſh'd.

They write from Schaffhouſen by To-day's Mail, that the timely Diſcovery of the Plot hatch'd at Berne had preſerved that City from the moſt terrible of all Deſolations. According to the Advices they had received of the Affair, the Project of the Conſpirators was to have ſeized on all the Avenues to the Place wherein the Regency holds its Aſſemblies: to have maſſacred all the Members of which the Regency is compoſed; to have ſet Fire at the ſame Time to the four Corners of the Town; and to have profited from the general Confuſion, in the putting in Execution the Reſt of their Deſigns, and changing the Form of the Government: The principal Accomplices, they ſay, have been arreſted: but many others have eſcaped.

The Inhabitants of many Diſtricts in Savoy are reduced to Famine, thro' the Scarcity of Grain; and the ſending of any Corn out of France is entirely forbidden. Some of the Cantons of Switzerland, and a Part of Dauphiny, we are told, alſo begin to feel a great Scarcity.

According to Advices from Stockholm of the firſt Inſtant, N.S. their Naval Armament at Carelſcroon is compleated, the Fleet being ready to put to Sea at a few Hours Warning. In the mean while they go on building new Gallies and other light Veſſels. Another large Remittance is come from Paris, which they ſay is deſtin'd to haſten the Ships building in Sweden for the Service of the French Court; and they alſo take Notice, that the Ships already ſent away to France were well freighted with Timber, Iron, Pitch, Tar, Rigging, &c.

London, July 13. Yeſterday Orders were given for ſeveral Perſons who are engaged as Managers for the Scotch Fiſheries, to embark for Scotland on that Buſineſs; Advice having been received from that Kingdom, that ſome of the principal Places for that Purpoſe had been pitch'd upon and marked out.

By Letters from Lyons, dated the 4th of this Inſtant, we have very melancholy Accounts from Savoy, Switzerland, the Province of Dauphiny, &c. but more particularly from the Place firſt abovementioned. The Inhabitants of that Duchy, through the Famine that that at present rages in those Parts, have been reduced to the Necessity of subsisting on Onions, Lettices, and other Roots, being provided with neither Barley or Rye of any Kind, nor any Sort of Grain.

Corn is already raised, from 10 to 12 Livres per Bushel; and none has been sold within this Fortnight last past here and in the Parts adjacent, under 16; and now we pay no less than 22 Livres per Bushel.

London, July 15. This Morning the Marquis de Mirepoix arrived here from Paris, in Quality of Embassador from the King of France to this Court.

We are assured, that at the next Meeting of the Parliament, a Plan, for a new Palace at St. James's, will be laid before them for their Approbation, which has met with great Encouragement from the great Officers of State, and divers others of the Nobility.

'Tis reported, that a Messenger and some Assistants are gone to Lancashire, upon an Information, that some Persons, who were transported on Account of the late Rebellion, were returned into the Kingdom.

We hear that the Lords of the Admiralty, upon their Review of the Dock Yards at Woolwich, Chatham, &c. order'd a great Number of Artificers to be discharg'd.

The rich Fleet from the Havannah, under the Command of Admiral Reggio, is safely arriv'd at Corunna, with seven Millions Sterling.

James Ogilvie of Aberdeen, Esq; possess'd of a plentiful Fortune in the Isles of Orkney, is appointed Receiver-General and Manager of the Fisheries on the Coast of Scotland.

We are assured that their Graces the Dukes of Newcastle and Bedford have subscribed 400 l. for the Encouragement of the Scotch Fisheries.

Several small Vessels, from twenty to fifty Tons Burden, are now building in the River for the Service of the said Fisheries.
